Tuesday, March 9, 2010

Good morning, this is Tuesday, March 9, 2010.

Please stand for The Pledge of Allegiance.

I pledge allegiance
to the flag
of the United States
of America
and to the Republic
for which it stands,
one nation under God,
indivisible,
with liberty and justice for all.

Please be seated for 30 seconds of silent meditation.

Good morning Patriots!

Congratulations to our own Sean Johnson for qualifying for the State National Geography Bee. After winning the school-wide bee, Sean was required to pass a grueling exam that qualified him to compete against numerous winners from all over our state on April 9th. If Sean is the winner of the State Bee, he will travel to Washington D.C. to compete against all 49 other state champions for a chance to win $25,000. Go get 'em Sean, Mr. Stark wants to go to Washington D.C.!

Mrs. Wilder would like to thank you for your participation in the library's Reading Week activities last week. The winners of the bookmark contest are: 6th grade, Taylor Herpolsheimer; 7th grade, Kelsey Figg; and 8th grade, Conor Czyznicjewski. Congratulations to Taylor, Kelsey, and Conor! Teachers, if these students are currently in your class, please send them to the library at this time to claim their prizes. The winner of the "Candy Count" contest is Jordan Newbould. Congratulations Jordan! Please come to the library at this time to claim your prize.

The boys basketball team lost to Saville MS yesterday despite a game effort by all players. Tomorrow they will try to redeem themselves as they travel to Lied and try to avenge their loss earlier in the season. Good luck boys!

Students, "Smoothie Wednesday" has been cancelled this week due to the Patriot House barbeque. "Smoothie Wednesday" will resume next week on March 17th.

Thank you and have an astonishing day!
